DAVE ST. PETER

PRESIDENT AND CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Dave St. Peter was named the fourth president in Minnesota Twins history on November 26, 2002. St. Peter also assumed the Chief Executive Officer title on December 21, 2016 and continues to oversee the team's day-to-day operations, strategic planning and interaction with Major League Baseball.

St. Peter played a central role in the approval, design, construction and opening of Target Field, which was named 2011 Sports Facility of the Year by the Sports Business Journal (SBJ). He also has played leadership roles in securing the 2022 Discover NHL Winter Classic® for Target Field, a New Year's Day extravaganza described in the Star Tribune as a "postcard for Minnesota"; construction of a new player-development Academy in the Dominican Republic; hosting the 2014 Major League Baseball All-Star Game, which earned finalist honors from SBJ for "Event of the Year"; expansion of the Lee County Sports Complex in Fort Myers, FL – named Ballpark Digest's 2015 "Major Ballpark Renovation of the Year"; as well as forging the team's partnership with Hennepin County on the design and programming of Minnesota's award-winning intermodal transit hub — Target Field Station. In 2020, St. Peter led the Twins' effort to build a new, player development-focused partnership with the St. Paul Saints.

At age 55, St. Peter is in his 33rd year with the Twins. He joined the organization as an intern in 1990 and over his first decade with the franchise held a variety of positions including Pro Shop Manager, Communications Manager, Vice President of Corporate Communications and Senior Vice President of Business Affairs. As the club president, the Twins established a new single-season franchise attendance record in 2010 by attracting more than 3.2 million fans to Target Field, while the team was recognized by ESPN as having the best stadium experience in all of professional sports. St. Peter's leadership has been integral to the team's Diversity, Equity and Inclusion commitment; development of the "Magic Moments" customer service initiative; the "Go Twins, Go Green" environmental stewardship platform; expansion of the Treasure Island Baseball Network; aggressive community outreach; and expansive alumni involvement — including creation of the Twins Hall of Fame.

St. Peter has been part of a leadership team helping the franchise advance to postseason play nine times since 2002, including eight American League Central Division titles. During St. Peter's leadership tenure, the Twins have twice been named "Organization of the Year" by Baseball America (2002 and '04). In 2006, the entire Twins organization was recognized as the Star Tribune's "Sports Person of the Year", while in 2002, the franchise received the Atlanta Sports Council's Horizon Award as the "Professional Sports Organization of the Year." The Twins organization was a finalist for SBJ's 2019 "Team of the Year" Award.

The "Twins Tradition" of Passion, Hustle, Heart and Fun has flourished under St. Peter's stewardship. Seven times, the Twins have been honored by the Star Tribune as one of the "Top 100" workplaces in Minnesota. In 2011, the Twins were celebrated by the Minneapolis Parks and Recreation Board with its "Living the Dream" Award. The Twins Community Fund, which celebrated its 30th year in 2021, was honored in 2000 with the Greater Minneapolis Chamber of Commerce's Quality of Life Award and in 2006 with a Project EverGreen Stewardship Award. In 2016, the Minneapolis Regional Chamber of Commerce presented the Twins with an "Honored Company" Award in recognition of outstanding community service. Since 2012, the Twins have been a Yellow Ribbon Company in recognition of the club's support for veterans as well as active-duty soldiers. In 2019, the U.S. Green Building Council selected the Twins as a recipient of the prestigious Greenbuild Leadership Award recognizing excellence in the creation of healthier, more sustainable buildings and communities.

Individually, St. Peter has been named to the SBJ's and Minneapolis-St. Paul Business Journal's "Forty under 40" lists. In 2018, he was recognized by the Positive Coaching Alliance as Minnesota's Triple-Impact Competitor Business Executive of the Year.

At the league level, St. Peter serves as a Trustee on the MLB-MLBPA Player Pension Committee. In the community, St. Peter co-chairs Minnesota Sports and Events. He also serves on the boards of the YMCA of the North, NuLoop Partners and the University of North Dakota Alumni Association & Foundation.

St. Peter was born in Bismarck, North Dakota, and graduated from the University of North Dakota in 1989. Dave has three grown sons – Jack, Eric and Ben – and makes his home in Chanhassen, MN.

BUSINESS EXECUTIVES

ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD

Since 1971, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award that recognizes a player who best exemplifies the game of baseball through sportsmanship, community involvement and positive contributions to his team.

In 1973, following the tragic death of Roberto Clemente, the award was named to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12-time All-Star and Hall of Famer was killed in a plane crash in 1972 delivering food and medical supplies to earthquake victims in Nicaragua. The award recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others.

A panel of baseball dignitaries, including Vera Clemente and the Commissioner, annually selects the winner from a list of 30 candidates, one from each Major League Baseball Club. The winner of the national Roberto Clemente Award is announced during a pre-game ceremony at the World Series. Past winners include Jim Thome, Rod Carew (Twins - 1977), Dave Winfield (Twins - 1994), Kirby Puckett (Twins - 1996), Tony Gwynn, Willie Mays, Brooks Robinson, Al Kaline, Willie Stargell, Lou Brock, Phil Niekro, Gary Carter, Ozzie Smith, Derek Jeter, Albert Pujols, Edgar Martínez, John Smoltz, Craig Biggio, Cal Ripken, Jr., David Ortiz, Clayton Kershaw, Yadier Molina and many more.

The 2021 Minnesota Twins Roberto Clemente Award nominee was Nelson Cruz for the second-consecutive season.

EARNED RUNS RULE

The determination of earned-runs is as follows:

An earned-run is a run for which the pitcher is held accountable. In determining earned-runs, the inning should be reconstructed without the errors and passed balls, and the benefit of the doubt should always be given to the pitcher in determining which bases would have been reached with errorless play.

Until 1969, a reliever could not be charged with an earned-run if he entered the game after the side could have been retired but for an error, no matter how many runs he subsequently gave up in that inning. Now, runs scored by batters who reach base off the reliever are charged as earned on that pitcher's record. They are not, however, charged as earned against the team as a whole. Therefore, a discrepancy may occur between the total earned-runs charged against a team and the sum total of the earned-runs charged against the individual pitchers of that team.

SAVES RULE

Credit a pitcher with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions:

(1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club; and
(2) He is not the winning pitcher; and
(3) He qualifies under one of the following conditions:
- (a) He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning; or
- (b) He enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or on deck; or
- (c) He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

No more than one save may be credited in each game.

It is considered a 'blown save' when a pitcher who has entered a game in a save situation departs with the save situation no longer in effect because he has given up the lead. If the save situation still exists when he leaves the game, he is not charged with a save opportunity. And, if he has not given up the lead when he leaves the game, even though the save situation may no longer exist, he is not charged with a save opportunity.

DID YOU Know?

...the longest home run ever hit by a Twin was estimated at 520 feet. Harmon Killebrew crushed the three-run blast off California righty Lew Burdette, which landed in the sixth row of the upper deck at Metropolitan Stadium on June 3, 1967. The ball cracked the seat, and was later painted orange to commemorate the event. The seat is now located in the Mall of America — the former site of "Met" Stadium — bolted to a wall in the amusement park, marking the height and position where the ball would have landed in the upper deck.

...that the Twins' best homestand ever took place during the 1991 season. The team went 10-0 from June 3-13 against Baltimore (3-0), Cleveland (4-0) and New York (3-0). The franchise's best road trip resulted in seven wins in eight tries, accomplished twice. The first was a New York, Milwaukee and Boston trip, April 28 to May 7, 1972, and the second came 30 years later on a Cleveland, Detroit and Chicago trip from July 17-July 24, 2002. The Twins have had two 10-win road trips, going 10-7 between July 23 and August 8, 1963 and 10-6 from August 14-27, 1967.

WASHINGTON / MINNESOTA FRANCHISE

The Minnesota Twins trace their roots as a major-league franchise to the 1901 Washington Senators, but they go back even farther as a minor-league team. The Western League began in 1894 with aspirations of becoming a major league, a status it achieved seven years later. Most of the Midwestern cities were left behind in the transition. For example, a St. Paul team owned by Charles Comiskey moved to Chicago, where it still exists as the White Sox. Several cities, including Minneapolis, had their teams disband and be replaced by ones in larger, eastern cities. However, the Kansas City team, owned and managed by Jimmy Manning, went to Washington and retained its minor-league connection. Manning was the first manager of the Senators (officially the Nationals for many years but more often referred to by fans and others as the Senators) and brought with him most of his players from Kansas City.

The major-league Senators established their destiny early, finishing no higher than sixth in an eight-team league in each of its first 11 seasons, four times finishing in the cellar. As early as 1904 came the quip, "Washington: First in War, First in Peace, Last in the American League."

Washington wallowed despite the addition in 1907 of Walter Johnson, considered by many to be the best pitcher in the history of baseball. Johnson struck out more than 3,500 batters in his career. Several pitchers later surpassed his strikeout record, but Johnson achieved his total mainly during the deadball era, a period that preceded the big swingers.

In 1912 Johnson was credited with 33 pitching victories and helped the Senators finish second, the first time the team placed higher than sixth. Leading the team was Clark Griffith, in his first year as Washington manager. Griffith had been an outstanding pitcher in the 1890s and was a leader getting the American League established, helping to convince more than 100 National League players to join the new league.

Griffith also began acquiring an ownership interest in the Senators, selling cattle from his Montana ranch and eventually mortgaging the ranch to raise the funds needed to purchase a controlling interest. He became the team's president in 1920.

Around this time Griffith took custody of two children of his wife's brother, James Robertson, who lived in Montreal and had health and money problems. Calvin and Thelma Robertson moved to Washington and, although never formally adopted, took the Griffith name. Clark Griffith ran the Senators as a family operation. Calvin and Thelma eventually worked for the team along with the siblings who had stayed with James Robertson. As a 12-year-old, Calvin Griffith was a bat boy for the Senators at the high point for the team in Washington.

The Senators were guided by a veteran and a relative youngster in 1924. Walter Johnson (shown below), in his 18th season, led the American League with 23 wins. The second baseman, 27-year-old Bucky Harris, was in his first year of managing Washington while acquiring the nickname, "Boy Wonder."

The Senators stopped a three-year pennant streak by the New York Yankees and went to the World Series, against the New York Giants, who had won their fourth straight National League pennant. Those pulling for the Senators included President Calvin Coolidge, who attended the World Series games in the capital. Many fans were excited that the 36-year-old Johnson finally had made it to the World Series. However, Johnson was the losing pitcher in the 12-inning opener as well as the fifth game, and it looked like he wouldn't get the World Series win that so many were hoping for.

The World Series went to a decisive seventh game, and though Johnson didn't start, he entered the game after the Senators scored two runs on Harris's bad-hop single to tie the score in the last of the eighth. The Big Train, as Johnson was known, again had a shot at a World Series win, one that would give his team the championship. The victory, for Johnson and the Senators, came in the last of the 12th when Earl McNeely doubled home Muddy Ruel.

Another celebration came in 1925, although this time it was for only a league championship. Johnson won two games in the World Series against Pittsburgh. However, in the seventh game, he couldn't hold a four-run lead in the final game and lost to the Pirates.

As Clark Griffith worked his family members into the Senators organization, some worked their way into the family. Shortstop Joe Cronin came to Washington in 1928 and began courting Mildred Robertson, who was Griffith's secretary and his niece. Cronin became player-manager in 1933 as the Senators won 99 games to win the pennant although they lost to the Giants in the World Series. Cronin and Robertson got married near the end of the 1934 season. While they were on their honeymoon, Cronin got the word that he had been traded to the Boston Red Sox. The deal included $250,000 from the Red Sox, an indication of how Griffith was always in need of money, to the point that he would unload a family member.

Bucky Harris returned as manager, continuing a pattern under Clark Griffith of Washington managers who had played for the team. In the 1940s, Ossie Bluege took the helm for five years. Bluege was an organization lifer, having played for the Senators for 18 years before becoming a coach and then manager. Bluege became farm director – he is credited with discovering Harmon Killebrew – and then the team's comptroller, a role he kept in the 1960s after Washington moved to Minnesota.

During World War II, the Senators were among teams who cut expenses with Griffith relying on an inexpensive and untapped pool of talent in Latin America. While the Senators scaled back on scouts, one man, Joe Cambria, stood out as Griffith's Caribbean connection, particularly in Cuba and especially after skin color no longer disqualified a player from organized baseball.

Clark Griffith died in 1955, and nephew Calvin took over as president. The Senators were as dismal as ever, and the usual low finish in the standings was commensurate with the small number of fans who attended games at Griffith Stadium.

The Senators had played on the same site since 1904, in a park that had been used by a Washington team in the National League in the 1890s. In March of 1911, the park's wooden stands burned. The grandstand was quickly rebuilt with steel and concrete and expanded over the years. It took the name Griffith Stadium in the 1920s and was notable for a quirky right-angle detour of the fence in center field to avoid several houses behind it as well as for its long distances to left field. Two players – Mickey Mantle and Josh Gibson – hit blasts long enough to clear the grandstand beyond the left-field fence, but it was a graveyard for right-handed hitters. For years, the distance down the line was more than 400 feet. The distance was reduced in the 1950s, eventually to 350 feet, making it more inviting for up-and-coming sluggers such as Bob Allison and Harmon Killebrew.

Even with an improving farm system and the arrival of young talent, Washington continued to lose more than 90 games a season. As season attendance stayed consistently below 500,000, and as other major-league teams were relocating, Calvin Griffith explored a new home for the Senators and finally, after the 1960 season, got permission to move to Minnesota.

The players the Senators developed and acquired – besides Allison and Killebrew, there were Camilo Pascual, Jim Kaat, and Earl Battey – became the All-Stars of the 1960s. Unfortunately for Washington, and fortunately for Minnesota, they did so as Twins rather than as Senators.

DID YOU Know?

...that in 1976, Twins pitcher Bill Campbell went 17-5 with a 3.00 ERA and 20 saves in 78 relief appearances. He became the second player in major league history to win and save at least 15 games in a season since saves became an official statistic in 1969 (Dodgers' Mike Marshall won 15 and saved 21 in 1974). Campbell's 17 victories tied the American League record for wins in relief. In 1977, Twins reliever Tom Johnson became the third player in major league history to win and save at least 15 games. He finished the season 16-7 with a 3.12 ERA and 15 saves in 71 relief appearances.

DID YOU Know?

...that only once in their 61 seasons have the Twins won three games in a row by the same score. They beat Boston on September 3, 1987, 2-1, and followed with 2-1 victories over Milwaukee the next two days, all three of which took place in the Metrodome. The Twins have twice lost three games in a row by the same score. They were 2-1 games, July 21-23, 1967, at California, and 4-3 decisions, May 2-4, 1988, the first two coming at Milwaukee and the third at Baltimore.

MISCELLANEOUS BASEBALL TERMINOLOGY

WHIP: Walks and hits per innings pitched = add a pitchers walk total with his hit total and divide by the amount of innings pitched.

QUALITY STARTS: A starting pitcher logs at least 6.0 innings and allows three-or-fewer earned runs in an outing.

TOTAL BASES: Number of bases a hitter gains via hits only...single = 1, double = 2, triple = 3, home run = 4.

AT-BAT vs. PLATE APPEARANCE: Plate appearance refers to any time a batter completes a turn batting. (NOTE: A plate appearance cannot be logged if a preceding runner was out on the base paths for a third out or the game ends with a runner scoring from third on a wild pitch or balk). At-bat refers to any turn batting that does not result in a walk, hit by pitch, sac-fly or sac-hit (bunt).

OPS: A player's on-base percentage plus his slugging percentage. MLB average in 2021 was .728. Major League Baseball's leader was Philadelphia Phillies outfielder Bryce Harper (1.044).

CLOSE AND LATE: A situation in which the game is in the seventh inning-or-later and the team batting is either leading by one run, tied, or has the potential tying run on base, at-bat, or on deck.

TIMES ON BASE: Includes the total number of times a hitter reaches base as result of a hit, walk, or hit by pitch...does not include times a hitter reaches via error or fielder's choice.

CATCHER'S ERA: The earned run average of a team's pitchers with a particular catcher behind the plate. To compute, multiply nine by the earned runs allowed by the pitchers for that specific catcher, then divide that figure by his innings caught.

HOLD: Credited to a relief pitcher who enters a game in a save situation, records at least one out and leaves the game never having surrendered the lead. NOTE: A pitcher cannot finish a game and earn a hold.

2021 MINOR LEAGUE RECAP

ST. PAUL (67-63, Triple-A East) — Following 28 seasons of Independent Professional Baseball, the Saints made the jump to Triple-A ball in 2021 and fashioned a successful, 67-63 third-place campaign that saw nine of their players make their major league debuts across the river (C Ben Rortvedt; IF/OF Nick Gordon; OFs Trevor Larnach and Gilberto Celestino; LHPs Charlie Barnes and Jovani Moran; and RHPs Bailey Ober, Griffin Jax and Joe Ryan). Offensively, the Saints ranked fifth in the 20-team Triple-A East Division with a .429 team slugging percentage and seventh with a .761 OPS, while their 178 home runs were fourth most. Infielder Jose Miranda, the Twins' No. 8 prospect and Minor League Player of the Year, played the final 80 games of his campaign in St. Paul and put on a show, batting .343 with 24 doubles, 17 home runs, 56 RBI and a .960 OPS en route to leading all of Minor League Baseball in hits (184) and total bases (306). Brent Rooker was tied for first among all Triple-A players with 20 homers at the time of his July 23 recall by the Twins, while utility player Drew Maggi (16 HR), along with fellow veteran and Postseason All-Star catcher Tomás Telis (12 HR), each set their respective professional career highs. St. Paul posted a 4.55 team ERA, with 1,180 strikeouts in 1,141.2 innings pitched. A total of 42 pitchers took the mound for the Saints, with right-hander Chandler Shepherd leading the club with nine wins. TARGET FIELD

TARGET FIELD®

The Minnesota Twins moved into the award-winnng Target Field prior to the 2010 season. The ballpark is a modern architectural expression, a dichotomy of Minnesotans' cosmopolitan lifestyle so rooted in nature and the outdoors. The stone and glass landmark, topped by a metal-clad, sculpted roof canopy, is chiseled into downtown Minneapolis on one of Major League Baseball's smallest sites. The ballpark's urban appeal is enhanced with immediate access to light rail and commuter rail, bridging the site to its urban surroundings and spurring the ongoing development and transformation of the western corner of downtown.

Now in its 13th season, Target Field has proved to be one of the premier sporting and entertainment venues in the Upper Midwest, while earning widespread acclaim as one of the most unique, spectacular ballparks in all of Major League Baseball. Here is a list of features that help make the Twins' outdoor home unlike any other baseball experience in America.

MATERIALS

Native Minnesota limestone forms the mass of the ballpark's exterior façade. Glass and metal details punctuate the limestone surface, creating a sophisticated composition. In addition, whenever possible, the ballpark and surrounding areas incorporate native Minnesotan flowers, trees and shrubs.

SEATING

Target Field features one of the closest seating bowls to the playing field in all of Major League Baseball. Seats in Target Field feature more leg room and are articulated towards the field of play. The ballpark features more aisles with fewer seats per row.

CONCOURSE

The ballpark features a 360-degree open main concourse, giving fans an uninterrupted view of the playing field.

Approximate Capacity	38,544
Seating in Lower Level	18,640
Seating in Upper Level	14,703
Seating in Club Level	5,201
Concourse Width (main)	40 feet
Concourse Width (upper)	26-44 feet
Restrooms	401 (w) 266 (m)

CLIMATE/SHELTER

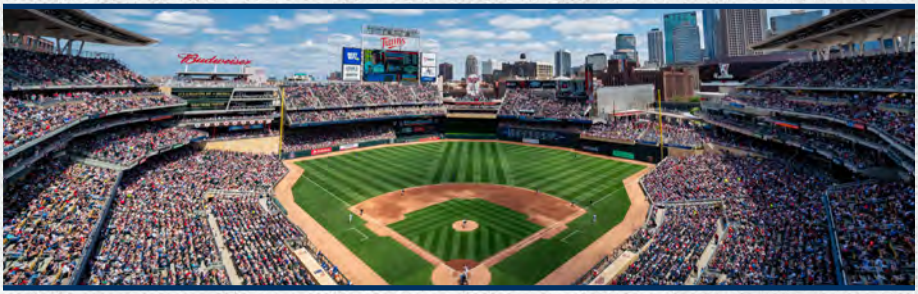

The Twins are committed to providing a comfortable experience for the fans — even when our weather is less than perfect. Fans are able to take advantage of heated concessions, restrooms, and restaurant and lounge areas found on each ballpark level, including the Terrace level. Target Field's roof canopy — one of the largest in baseball — provides added protection, while the Gate 34 area (revamped prior to 2019) provides shelter for fans entering the ballpark's main gate.

EVOLVING AND ADAPTING

Under the leadership of the Pohlad family, the Twins continually examine all aspects of the ballpark with an eye towards evolving, adapting and ultimately improving the Target Field experience for fans, players, staff and neighbors alike. Accordingly, Target Field has undergone several siginficant renovations, additions and enhancements since opening in 2010 (please see pages 442-444 for more information).

CELEBRATING MINNESOTA'S RICH BASEBALL HERITAGE

Target Field celebrates the heritage and history of the game across the Upper Midwest. The ballpark includes tributes to the great Twins teams and players from the past, other Minnesota baseball icons and baseball players, and teams and ballparks of all levels.

"The Winter Classic couldn't look better at Target Field. What an awesome moment for the State of Hockey."

That sentiment, posted on social media by St. Paul Pioneer Press reporter Dane Mizutani and subsequently shared internationally by thousands, gave words to the emotions that nearly 40,000 people at Target Field – and another 1.4 million watching on television – felt before, during and after the 2022 Discover NHL Winter Classic® on New Year's Day.

Thanks to the drive of Minnesota Wild Owner & Governor Craig Leipold and President & Alternate Governor Matt Majka; the shared passion of Minnesota Twins Executive Chair Jim Pohlad and President & CEO Dave St. Peter; the vision of NHL executives; and the commitment and hard work of hundreds of people, Target Field was transformed into a hockey winter wonderland. The resulting New Year's Day setting was truly spectacular, shining a deserved spotlight on the Twin Cities and Minnesota.

Jamie Hersch, a Minnesota-born analyst for both the NHL and MLB Network (and a former Bally Sports North personality), shared with her viewers that "I always tell people that the Land of 10,000 Lakes also means the Land of 10,000 Frozen Pond Hockey Rinks." It was thus only fitting that the Winter Classic showcased Minnesota's love affair with hockey in its purest form, regardless of (or perhaps because of!) the elements.

The first-ever Winter Classic played at night also became the coldest outdoor game in NHL history, with a temperature of -8 degrees Fahrenheit at puck drop that made this Wild-St. Louis Blues contest the third-chilliest event in North American pro sports history (behind only a pair of infamous NFL games: the 1967 "Ice Bowl" in Green Bay that was -13 at kickoff, and the 1982 "Freezer Bowl" in Cincinnati that began with a -9 reading). Despite the cold and the hometown Wild's 6-4 loss, the sellout crowd of 38,619 stayed energetic throughout, enthralled by the spectacle of "Lake Winter Classic" at Target Field.

2022 DISCOVER NHL WINTER CLASSIC®

* marked 3rd-coldest event in North American pro sports history

As Mizutani opined in the Pioneer Press, "With nearly 40,000 fans packed into the stands, the Minneapolis skyline twinkling in the background, and the temperature hovering around minus-10 degrees all night long, the Winter Classic was always going to be something for Minnesotans to remember." And it certainly was. From kids joining Minnesota luminaries to skate on the outfield "ponds" to a ceremonial puck drop featuring Twins legends Justin Morneau, Kent Hrbek, Joe Mauer and new Hall of Fame electee Tony Oliva; from Vocal Essence's powerful delivery of the national anthem to country music superstar Thomas Rhett's scintillating first intermission concert; from 7-year-old Adam Christopher Scott's stirring rendition of Herb Brooks' legendary "Miracle" speech during the second period to a near-stunning third-period rally by the Wild, the Winter Classic at Target Field was electric from start to finish.

At the end of this awe-inspiring night in the State of Hockey, the 2022 Discover NHL Winter Classic® had created memories to last a lifetime. Or, as Star Tribune reporter Sarah McLellan so aptly summarized:

"The Winter Classic became a postcard for Minnesota."

THE "GREENEST" BALLPARK IN AMERICA

In 2010, the U.S. Green Building Council awarded Target Field LEED (Leadership in Energy & Environmental Design) Silver Certification for New Construction, making it the second major league ballpark in the United States to achieve that status. Less than two years after earning LEED Silver certification for New Construction, the Minnesota Twins became the first professional sports franchise to also attain LEED Silver certification for Existing Buildings: Operation and Maintenance. In 2017, the Twins became the first to attain LEED Gold for operation and maintenance of their facility, an honor for which the club was recertified in 2019.

Target Field is also the nation's first sports venue to earn three levels of LEED certification through Arc, the state-of-the art digital platform that uses real-time data to help benchmark, measure and improve sustainability performance. Arc is the first of its kind to track progress through a performance score, enabling projects to make more informed decisions when it comes to sustainability.

TWINS SUSTAINABILITY STATEMENT

The Minnesota Twins organization believes our future success — both on and off the field — is built on a business model that embraces operational efficiency, environmental stewardship and social responsibility. We honor the power of sport by leading through example, and we will continue to use sport to inspire, build the best fan experience and cause no unnecessary harm, working with our fans, community, suppliers, partners and employees to have a positive influence in the world.

CAPTURING AND REUSING RAINWATER

Through a custom-designed Rain Water Recycle System provided by Minneapolis-based Pentair, the Minnesota Twins have captured, purified and reused nearly 20 million total gallons of rainwater, drastically reducing the use of municipal water at Target Field. The majority of the recycled rainwater was used to wash down the seating bowl attached to the main concourse.

RECYCLING AND CONVERTING WASTE TO ENERGY

Through aggressive recycling and waste-to-energy programs, and the assistance of fans at Target Field, the Twins kept nearly 13,000 tons of waste out of local landfills from 2011 to 2021.

- 4,190 tons of trash have been sent to the Hennepin Energy Recovery Center.
- 4,743 tons of waste have been recycled from Target Field.
- 3,796 tons of organic materials have been composted and diverted from landfills.

DONATING UNUSED FOOD TO LOCAL CHARITIES

The Minnesota Twins and concession partner Delaware North Companies Sportservice donate more than 10 tons of food to local charities each season. Through a partnership with Rock and Wrap It Up! Inc., representatives from Joseph's Storehouse in Brooklyn Park box up all prepared but untouched meals at Target Field, donating the unused food from Target Field to local charities. Throughout the partnership, the Twins have donated:

- 345,950 hot dogs and brats
- 56,880 hamburgers
- 27,052 chicken breasts

To date, these efforts have kept more than 63 tons of waste out of local landfills.

In recognition of the Minnesota Twins' outstanding contributions to green building and sustainability in the sports industry, the U.S. Green Building Council honored the organization with a 2019 Leadership Award. The Twins, heralded as a "model for sustainability in the sporting world," were awarded for using green building and sustainable practices to improve quality of life for those around them.

TARGET FIELD Statues

Designed by Bill Mack, the Target Field statues depict some of the greatest influences in Minnesota Twins history. Each person, while standing over seven feet tall, is featured in an iconic pose, from Harmon Killebrew's powerful swing to Kirby Puckett's signature World Series post-home run celebration. Located near the entrances to the ballpark, these Twins statues are on display to greet fans whenever they visit Target Field.

ABOUT THE ARTIST

Bill Mack, who makes his home in Minneapolis, has worked for over 20 years mostly as a commissioned artist. He has created works for the Figure Skating Hall of Fame, the Cowboy Hall of Fame and both the Hockey Hall of Fame in Canada and the U.S. Hockey Hall of Fame.

Target Field Station

Opened in spring of 2014, Target Field Station connects people and places, as this multi-modal transportation hub at 5th St. N and 5th Ave. N in downtown Minneapolis offers public green spaces, connections to 500 trains daily via the METRO Blue and Green lines, the Northstar Commuter Rail, as well as access to the North Loop neighborhood. Target Field Station's more than 104,000 square feet of space include a public plaza for year-round special events and activities, green space, a 1,000-seat amphitheater, office space, retail shops and a 286-car underground parking garage. The Minnesota Twins, Target and Hennepin County offer programming and special events in the public space.

IT PROVIDES a connection for commuters, baseball fans, downtown visitors and riders connecting to other Metro Transit services — including Blue and Green Line Light Rail service to St. Paul, the airport and Mall of America, the Northstar Commuter Rail Line, as well as bus service from the nearby 5th Street Transit Center. Future transit lines and plans to develop a transportation hub will create additional regional connections for Target Field commuters.

THE PURPOSE of Target Field Station is to provide high-quality transit service and efficient access to Minneapolis and surrounding communities. This hub encourages greater use of public transportation within the Twin Cities due to a centrally-located facility, and improved multi-modal and pedestrian connections.

LOCATED on the north side of the park, Target Field Station is connected to the North Loop neighborhood. The name refers to the trolley line that once ran through the area, which is part of Minneapolis' Warehouse District. It connects the North Loop neighborhood with its roots.

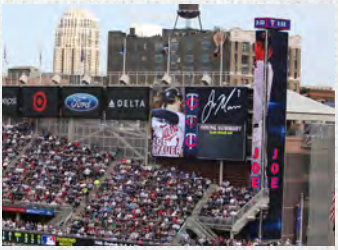

THE BLUE LINE runs from Target Field to the Mall of America. The Central Corridor — Green Line — runs down University Avenue to St. Paul's Union Depot.

TARGET FIELD Renovations

The Twins are continually examining all aspects of their home ballpark with an eye towards evolving, adapting and ultimately improving the Target Field experience for fans, players, staff and neighbors alike. Following are some of the major renovations, additions and enhancements at Target Field since it opened in 2010.

RIGHT FIELD VIDEO BOARD AND TWINS TOWER (2010-11 OFFSEASON) - Located next to each other behind the right field grand stand, the video board is 28' high x 50' wide and Twins Tower is 100' high x 5' wide x 11' deep. Both will be further enhanced during the 2022-23 offseason as part of the Twins' "Scoreboard 2.0" project with Daktronics.

CORONA RIGHT FIELD PATIO (2012-13 OFFSEASON) - The Twins replaced regular seating in the right field corner and unveiled "porch seating" in an area designed to be an exciting destination for both group and single-game ticket purchasers, similar to the Budweiser Roof Deck in left field. Beginning on Opening Day 2022, this area will be known as the Corona Right Field Patio.

GRAY DUCK DECK (2014-15 OFFSEASON; RENOVATED AGAIN 2019-20 OFFSEASON) - Originally built after the 2014 season to replace a team store and add more drink rails, the Twins and Gray Duck announced a new partnership in 2020 that brings the Minnesota liquor brand into Target Field with an open-air bar featuring signature drinks, celebrity bartender events and a great view of the game. Located adjacent to the left field foul pole, inside Gate 6.

DELTA SKY360° SUITE AND MINNIE & PAUL'S (2015-16 OFFSEASON) - The Twins and Populous transformed the center field seating area into a multi-level fan gathering space. The upper level, called Minnie & Paul's, is a Twins-themed pub open to all fans that includes food from Minnesota's own Pizza Lucé and Red Cow. The lower tier houses the Delta SKY360° Suite, an all-inclusive club with access to approximately 120 Twins Season Ticket Holders.

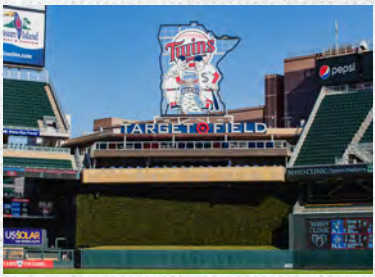

LED LIGHTING (2016-17 OFFSEASON) - The field lighting was upgraded to LED technology, reducing fixture count from 746 to approximately 512 and cutting energy use by approximately 55% for the field lighting. Additionally, the LED technology provides an improved look for not only fans at the ballpark, but also for television viewers. LED fixtures were also installed to illuminate the underside of the canopy, allowing for flexibility to change colors as desired.

TRULY ON DECK (2017-18 OFFSEASON) - Renovated in 2018, the space formerly known as the "Metropolitan Club" was improved to accommodate any guest, making it open to all fans with a game-day ticket. The ballpark's most expansive renovation to date includes operable glass windows, opening the space to the full Target Field experience. With indoor and outdoor seating, state-of-the-art video elements, Minnesota-based artist murals and major Twins award history on display, Truly On Deck is a great setting before, during or after the game.

"LIVING WALL" BATTER'S EYE (2018-19 OFFSEASON) - Replacing the previous black backdrop, the Target Field living wall system is the first of its kind for a Major League Baseball batter's eye and, at 2,280 square feet, is among the largest in the continental United States. The living wall incorporates approximately 5,700 sea green juniper plants, individually installed and secured in a tiered, multiple-tray system. Together, the junipers create a consistent, stationary background without variations in color or texture.

GATE 34 AREA

Beginning in 2018, accelerating in 2019 and continuing through 2020 and into 2021, the Twins added more than 9,300 square feet to the Gate 34 area, enhancing ingress and egress, while transforming Target Field's "front door" into a dynamic, vibrant space for fans to gather, eat and drink, play lawn games, relax and enjoy the shared experience of Twins Baseball.

EXPANDED CONCOURSE AND DRAFTS AT 34 - In 2018, the Twins expanded the main concourse at the intersection of Gates 29 and 34 by as much as 40 feet, creating enhanced ingress and egress for fans. This renovation also cut down on congestion and provided fans with new, premium drink rail standing-room locations. Also included in the concourse renovation was a tap wall known as DRAFTS at 34, which features more than 20 unique beers from across Twins Territory.

JACK DANIEL'S BAR AND SCHNEIDERMAN'S LAWN - Beginning in 2021, the main entrance to Target Field became home to a pair of new gathering spots before or during the game. Jack Daniel's and the Twins are making it count at the new Jack Daniel's Bar, complete with signature cocktails featuring the world's top-selling American whiskey. The 5,600-square-foot Schneiderman's Lawn is an inviting place for kids, families and all fans to kick back and relax on weather-resistant furniture (such as Adriondack chairs, wooden tables and benches, high-top bar tables and swivel chairs); or, to enjoy a game of catch and a spirited round of favorite lawn games such as cornhole.

Renovations, Continued...

UNITEDHEALTHCARE SENSORY SUITE (2021-22 OFFSEASON) - The Twins are proud to invite neuroatypical guests of all ages and abilities to visit Target Field's new state-of-the-art UnitedHealthcare Sensory Suite. Located on the UnitedHealthcare Suite Level, the former "Suite 1" has been completely renovated and, in partnership with leading health care experts, reimagined and equipped to provide a welcoming, compatible environment in which neuroatypical guests may find temporary respite, if needed, during games. The spacious Sensory Suite features unique, separated spaces specifically designed to meet different needs, including those of children and adults, while on-site staffers have been individually trained to deliver appropriate and diverse assistance. The UnitedHealthcare Sensory Suite's unique location is meant to ensure accessibility, while also helping to ease guests' transition back to their ticketed seats by offering a controlled, outdoor area overlooking the game. This outdoor option makes Target Field's sensory area among a select few professional sports venues nationally to have a view of the playing surface.

THE MARKET (2021-22 OFFSEASON) - Located inside Gate 6 down the left field line, "The Market" is an open-air, walk-through environment delivering both fresh hot food and pre-packaged grab-and-go items not available elsewhere in the ballpark, and – in a first for local sports venues – a walk-in cooler featuring an extensive variety of canned craft beers. Guests can enjoy this customizable, interactive shopping experience at their own pace, before quickly and efficiently purchasing their items through self-checkout stations.

GATE 29 MOSAIC (2021-22 OFFSEASON) - The Twins brought public art celebrating the diversity of our city, state and region – not just on game day, but 365 days a year – to the ballpark's "front porch" outside Gate 29. Designed by the renowned local duo of mosaic artist Daniela Bianchini and muralist Pablo Diego Perez Riesco, and showcasing the themes of "All are Welcome at Target Field" and "Celebrating our Community's Rich Diversity," this majestic glass mosaic is as varied and uniquely special as the people it represents. Comprised of thousands of individual glass pieces, the 66-foot-long mural brings many of Minnesota's cultures and communities together in a colorful expression of unity.

THE PLAYING SURFACE (2021-22 OFFSEASON) - After 12 years, 926 Major League Baseball games (including the 2014 All-Star Game), 11 years of the Minnesota State High School League championships, 40 college baseball games (including the 2013 and 2015 Big Ten Conference tournaments), 17 concerts, two college football games, one soccer friendly and the 2022 Discover NHL Winter Classic®, the playing surface at Target Field was replaced for the first time. This extensive project, which began February 24 and was completed in late-March, involved crews entirely comprised of Minnesotans. The new playing surface will look familiar to fans, as it features the same four-way blend of Kentucky Bluegrass, with the foundational sand coming from Elk River. The old (original) turf was broken down into reusable material.

TARGET FIELD®
Social Spaces

Since its opening, Target Field has evolved with — and for — Twins fans. Centered on, and enhanced by, the action on the field, an afternoon or evening at the ballpark is ultimately about more than nine innings or your ticketed seat. Twins Baseball is a communal experience, meant to be shared with friends, family and other fans in inclusive and engaging areas. From behind home plate to centerfield, from foul pole to foul pole, across all levels of Target Field and open to any fan with a ticket, the Twins are proud to provide social places for our fans to gather and enjoy the game — together.

DID YOU Know?

...that after a complete high-tech overall (completed prior to the 2021 season), Target Field deploys WiFi 6. PLAY IT SAFE AT TARGET FIELD

The Minnesota Twins are committed to welcoming all guests to a safe game day experience at Target Field. Metropolitan Stadium hosted the 1965 All-Star Game on July 13, a 6-5 National League victory that featured 18 Hall of Famers, including Harmon Killebrew, Hank Aaron, Roberto Clemente, Bob Gibson, Sandy Koufax, Mickey Mantle, Juan Marichal, Willie Mays, Frank Robinson and Joe Torre. The Twins were represented by six players, marking the most in club history. The two starters for the Twins included Harmon Killebrew, who played first base and batted third and Earl Battey, who played catcher and batted eighth. Killebrew went 1-for-3 with a two-run homer in the fifth inning off Cincinnati's Jim Maloney. Twins in a reserve role included Tony Oliva, who went 1-for-2 with the game's only double; Zoilo Versalles; Jimmie Hall; and Jim "Mudcat" Grant, who allowed two runs in 2.0 innings of relief. The game was ultimately decided by a Ron Santo infield single, scoring Willie Mays in the seventh inning. Juan Marichal started for the NL, pitching 3.0 scoreless innings and earned the game's MVP Award. Sandy Koufax was the winning pitcher, Sam McDowell was the loser, and Bob Gibson was credited with the save as the game lasted two hours and 45 minutes and was played in front of 46,706.

On July 16, 1985, the Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome staged the 56th All-Star Game, a 6-1 NL victory that included Hall of Famers Bert Blyleven, George Brett, Wade Boggs, Carlton Fisk, Tony Gwynn, Rickey Henderson, Paul Molitor, Jim Rice, Cal Ripken Jr., Nolan Ryan, Ryne Sandberg, Ozzie Smith and Dave Winfield. The Twins' lone representative was Tom Brunansky, who grounded out to short in his only at-bat in a reserve role and played one inning in right field. The NL jumped out in front early with a Steve Garvey RBI single in the second inning and held the lead throughout. LaMarr Hoyt started for the NL, allowing one unearned run in 3.0 innings pitched, earning the win and the game's MVP Award. Detroit's Jack Morris was the AL starter and suffered the loss. The game lasted two hours and 54 minutes and was played in front of 54,960.

The Dome also played host to the first ever All-Star Home Run Derby, including the Twins' own Tom Brunansky, who hit four home runs, good for second most among the 10 participants. Other participants were Jack Clark, Carlton Fisk, Steve Garvey, Eddie Murray, Dale Murphy, Home Run Derby Champion Dave Parker, Jim Rice, Cal Ripken Jr. and Ryne Sandberg.

HEART OF TWINS TERRITORY: MINNESOTA TWINS IN THE COMMUNITY

The players, coaches, alumni and employees of the Minnesota Twins support nonprofit organizations throughout Twins Territory, from the Upper Midwest to Southwest Florida and beyond.

PROACTIVE · FOCUSED · AUTHENTIC · COLLABORATIVE · CONTINUOUS · IMPACT-DRIVEN · CONNECTED

MINNESOTA TWINS GIVING CHARTER

A proud community partner for more than 60 years, the Minnesota Twins in November of 2020 announced a new giving charter outlining the organization's commitment to advance social equity by investing the in the full potential of our children, specifically focused on eliminating racial and socioeconomic opportunity gaps prevalent in K-12 education and overall youth development.

The Twins' giving charter – developed in collaboration with nonprofit partners, fans, the Pohlad Family Foundation and other community leaders – is built upon a foundation of continued legacy programs and guides the organization's charitable efforts. It is summarized as:

"The Minnesota Twins will advance social equity by leveraging our resources to ensure every child has the same opportunity for success. We believe equity in access to educational and developmental opportunities is essential in eliminating socioeconomic disparities. Building upon our longstanding community foundations, we will work to remove the barriers to access traditionally faced by underserved children, especially Black, Indigenous and People of Color, along with other wrongfully-marginalized individuals or groups. We are committed to shaping a society for children in which racism or inequality has no place. Our work, along with our partners', will focus on creating meaningful and inclusive changes that empower every child to reach their full potential."

Joe Mauer won the 2021» Kirby Puckett Award for alumni community service.

MINNESOTA TWINS COMMUNITY SUPPORT

We believe that baseball brings communities together and makes them stronger. Through baseball, we support and engage; we collaborate and elevate; we connect and unify.

While we play 162 games, we celebrate and support all communities 365 days a year.

- Educational Programs » The Minnesota Twins are working with partners focused on eliminating racial and socioeconomic opportunity gaps in childhood education; specifically, literacy and STEM education for K-12 students. The organization's "Reading is Powerful" initiative, presented by the Star Tribune, provides literacy-themed programming to more than 30 schools around the Twin Cities, while its "Learning Through Baseball" STEM-based educational tours at Target Field engages, enriches and empowers more than 15,000 students each year. Additionally, partnerships with the Kids in Need Foundation, United Way's Action Day and others work to ensure that every child has the school supplies they need to succeed.
- Youth Recreation/Healthy Living » Empowering the full potential of our youth also requires equitable access to opportunities outside the classroom that enhance overall development and well-being. The Minnesota Twins are proud to provide free, year-round baseball and softball clinics for children ages 3-14, both at Target Field and on fields throughout Twins Territory. The club also has longstanding relationships with the Courage Kenny Rehabilitation Institute and the "Rolling Twins" wheelchair softball team, the Boys and Girls Clubs of the Twin Cities, the Minneapolis and St. Paul Parks and Recreation Departments, and Hennepin County for the Step-to-It Challenge. The 2021 season introduced the inaugural Twins Girls Baseball Camp in partnership with the St. Paul Saints and Her Next Play, along with a baseball clinic held in conjunction with Special Olympics Minnesota.
- Twins Players » Wearing the Minnesota Twins uniform carries a special meaning and responsibility in Twins Territory. Current players support nonprofit organizations through participation in events like TwinsFest and the Grand Slam Dinner benefitting the Boys & Girls Clubs of the Twin Cities, along with hospital and school visits, and appearances at community events throughout the region. Additionally, some commit their time and energy to specific causes; for example, Byron Buxton gifts game tickets and meets with service members and their families as part of "Buxton's Battalion," while Taylor Rogers co-founded the nonprofit Rogers Family Foundation to provide funds for, and raise awareness around, mental wellness for first responders.
- Twins Alumni » The Minnesota Twins family is a lifelong bond. Twins alumni such as Bert Blyleven, Rod Carew, Kent Hrbek, Torii Hunter, Joe Mauer, Justin Morneau, Tony Oliva, Glen Perkins and others raise funds for and support charities through their various events and appearances.
- In-Kind Giving » The Minnesota Twins annually donate autographs, game experiences and more to support nearly 3,000 nonprofit auctions and fundraisers throughout the region; in 2021 alone, the club donated $3.2 million worth of tickets to Twins home games at Target Field for nonprofit partners and essential workers.
- Game Changers » Created to highlight small, minority-owned businesses making a big difference by giving back, the Twins Community Game Changers program, in partnership with Bally Sports North, celebrated its inaugural honorees in 2021: Gideon's Barber Shop in Minneapolis, Element Gym in St. Paul and Indigenous Food Lab in Minneapolis.

I WILL CHANGE THE WORLD

"I Will Change the World" is not an event, a program, or even an action. It is a belief statement that embodies the Minnesota Twins' commitment to the community.

It is an ongoing reminder to ourselves and all people that we have the power to create positive change that will impact the world. From small acts of faithfulness to grand marks of progress, every person has something valuable to contribute to making the world a better place. With unity and respect at the forefront, together, we can change the world.

MINNESOTA TWINS IN THE COMMUNITY

MINNESOTA TWINS COMMUNITY FUND

The Minnesota Twins Community Fund was founded in 1991 to lead the ballclub's charitable efforts. In those three decades, the Community Fund has worked to use the games of baseball and softball to improve lives and strengthen communities, and ensure that every kid has access to the resources they need to play the games that we love.

The work of the Twins Community Fund is made possible by the generous support of the Minnesota Twins Baseball Club; cornerstone partners Target, U.S. Bank and Treasure Island Resort & Casino; Twins players and especially Twins fans.

YOUTH BASEBALL AND SOFTBALL PROGRAMS

- Twins Youth Clinics annually provide free baseball and softball instruction to more than 2,000 kids in communities across the region.
- Coaching Clinics promote the importance of coaching youth and improve coaching skills; last year, virtual sessions were offered to ensure learning opportunities prior to the season.
- Play Ball! Minnesota is a collaboration of youth baseball and softball organizers working together to promote and improve opportunities for children around the state to play our games (playballmn.org).
- Twins Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities (RBI) organizes summer youth baseball and softball programs in the cities of Minneapolis and St. Paul; in 2021 alone, more than 2,500 children played on Twins RBI teams (twincitiesrbi.com).

MINNESOTA TWINS ACCELERATOR BY TECHSTARS

Overview
In April of 2021, the Minnesota Twins announced a partnership with Techstars, the worldwide network that helps entrepreneurs succeed, for a three-year, accelerator program based out of the Ford Center in downtown Minneapolis. "The Minnesota Twins Accelerator by Techstars" – the first of its kind in Minnesota sports and just the second such venture to be operated and funded by a Major League Baseball club – will attract and advance world-class startups focused on the intersection of technology, sports and entertainment.

Mission
The Minnesota Twins are striving to innovate on the field and off. Through three separate cohorts and a unique partnership with Techstars to develop a global pipeline of innovation, the Minnesota Twins Accelerator by Techstars aims to support and develop startups into stable, self-sufficient businesses producing technology-driving solutions in areas ranging from fan engagement and experiences to digital media and content, from athlete performance and preparation to venue and event innovation, and beyond.

Leadership
Experienced industry leaders Brett Bohl (Managing Director), Sarah Bain (Venture Principal) and Jessica Stalbaum (Director of Platform) guide the day-to-day operations of the Accelerator. Previously, this trio was involved in the creation of multiple, highly-successful Techstars accelerator programs in Minnesota with partners such as Cargill, Ecolab, Land O'Lakes and Target.

Mentorship
The three Minnesota Twins Accelerator by Techstars cohorts (each featuring 10 startups) will receive funding; hands-on mentorship from Techstars, the Twins and the Pohlad Companies, curated workshops and resources; as well as lifetime access to the Techstars global network. The more than three dozen mentors from the Twins front office includes members of the club's senior leadership teams and a representative cross-section of the club's business and baseball operations.

Class of 2022
The first cohort of the Minnesota Twins Accelerator by Techstars began on November 8, 2021 and concluded with a "Demo Day" on February 15, 2022. The second cohort will begin in the fall of 2022, while the third will get underway in the fall of 2023. The Accelerator's "Class of 2022" was a diverse and innovative group of 10 companies selected from more than 120 applicants; represented seven states, along with the District of Columbia and Ontario, Canada; and included six founded by persons of color:

TWINS RETIRED NUMBERS

HARMON KILLEBREW 3

One of the greatest home run hitters of all time, Harmon Killebrew will forever be remembered by Twins fans as the 'Killer' for his prolific clouts. A member of the Twins from their inaugural Minnesota season in 1961, Killebrew hit 573 career home runs, 475 of them in his 14 seasons with the Twins, and ranks 12th on the all-time home run list and third (behind Babe Ruth and Alex Rodriguez) in American League history. He hit more than 40 home runs on eight occasions, and 30 or more 10 times, while driving in 100 or more runs nine times.

Killebrew was the American League's Most Valuable Player in 1969 when he hit 49 home runs with an amazing 140 RBI and 145 walks, all team records that still stand. He was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1984, becoming the first Twin to receive the honor. He had his number 3 formally retired on May 4, 1975, and was selected to the Twins 25th Anniversary Team in 1986 and 40th Season All-Time Team in 2000. He was inducted into the Twins Hall of Fame on August 12, 2000 and named one of the "50 Greatest Twins" in 2010.

Killebrew passed away on May 17, 2011.

ROD CAREW 29

No Twins fan will ever forget the graceful power of Rod Carew's hitting stroke. Nor will any baseball enthusiast ever forget the summer of 1977, when Carew made his determined run at the untouchable .400 mark, because, just as Killebrew embodied the power of the game, Carew represented its finesse.

He was a career .328 hitter over his 19 major league seasons and was the winner of seven American League batting titles, all during his 12 years with Minnesota. Carew hit .300 or better 15 consecutive seasons and finished his career with 3,053 hits, which places him 27th among the all-time hit leaders and makes him one of only 32 players to collect 3,000 or more career hits.

Carew, who won the American League Most Valuable Player award in 1977, was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame on the first ballot in 1991. He had his number 29 retired July 19, 1987, and was selected to the Twins 25th Anniversary Team in 1986 and the 40th Season Anniversary All-Time Team in 2000. He was inducted into the Twins Hall of Fame on August 12, 2000 and was named one of the "50 Greatest Twins" in 2010.

TONY OLIVA 6

Pedro 'Tony' Oliva Jr., or 'Tony-O' to those who followed his 24-year career as a Twins player and coach, was a man who seemed to excel in all aspects of the game. He could hit for power and average, run, field and throw, and his versatility made him one of the most feared hitters of his day.

Tony-O collected 1,917 hits and retired with a .304 career average. He is the only player to win batting titles in his first two seasons and was the winner of three in his 15-year career. His prowess as a hitter was demonstrated by the fact that he led the league in hits five times and his 220 career home runs rank fourth all-time among Twins.

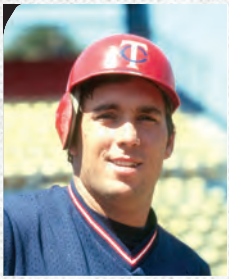

Oliva, the 1964 American League Rookie of the Year, began his coaching career in 1976. He now works as a Twins hitting instructor at the major league and minor league level and scouts for the club. He had his number 6 retired July 14, 1991, and was selected to the Twins 25th Anniversary Team in 1986 and the 40th Season Anniversary All-Time Team in 2000. He was inducted into the Twins Hall of Fame on August 12, 2000 and was named one of the "50 Greatest Twins" in 2010.

After decades of waiting for the call, Oliva was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in December 2021 by the Golden Days Era Committee and is scheduled to be formally inducted in Cooperstown, NY on July 24, 2022.

TWINS RETIRED NUMBERS

KENT HRBEK 14

Kent Hrbek grew up in the shadows of Metropolitan Stadium in Bloomington and was destined to become a Minnesota Twin. The big kid had more fun than most and treated Twins fans to much excitement from the day he donned a Twins uniform, homering in his major league debut in the 12th inning at Yankee Stadium to give the Twins a win on August 24, 1981. He finished his career with 293 home runs and 1,086 RBI, both good for second most in club history.

Hrbek, who was runner-up to Cal Ripken Jr. for American League Rookie of the Year in 1982, made his only All-Star appearance that season. He was most appreciated by his teammates and Twins fans for his upper-deck power, agility and for being one of the best ever to play first base. He is among club leaders in nearly every offensive category, but may be best remembered for his Game 6 grand slam in the 1987 World Series, or for his tag of Atlanta's Ron Gant in Game 2 of the 1991 World Series. He had his number 14 formally retired August 13, 1995 and was selected to the Twins 40th Season Anniversary All-Time Team in 2000. He was inducted into the Twins Hall of Fame on August 12, 2000, was selected to the All-Metrodome team in 2009 and was named one of the "50 Greatest Twins" in 2010.

KIRBY PUCKETT 34

Considered by most to be the greatest Twin, 'Puck' was baseball's jewel for 12 incredible seasons. He was a hero from day one, when he became the ninth player in history to collect four hits in his first game on May 8, 1984 at California. The dramatic entrance proved to be just the first of many heroic performances leading up to his shining moment on October 26, 1991, during Game 6 of the World Series against Atlanta. He went 3-for-4, robbed Ron Gant of an extra-base hit, and became the ninth player to end a World Series game with a home run on the final pitch with a drive off Charlie Leibrandt in the 11th inning to force a seventh game.

The 10-time All-Star, six-time Gold Glove Award winner and five-time Silver Slugger Award winner had his career cut short when he awoke with blurred vision caused by glaucoma on March 28, 1996. He was later forced to announce his retirement due to irreversible damage to the retina in his right eye on July 12. He retired as the Twins' all-time leader in hits (2,304), doubles (414), total bases (3,453), at-bats (7,244) and runs (1,071).

Puckett was one of the game's greatest community leaders and was given Major League Baseball's Roberto Clemente Man of the Year Award in 1996. He was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame on the first ballot in 2001 and became the third-youngest living electee in baseball history (behind Sandy Koufax and Lou Gehrig). He had his number 34 formally retired May 25, 1997 and was selected to the Twins 40th Season Anniversary All-Time Team in 2000. He was inducted into the Twins Hall of Fame on August 12, 2000, was selected to the All-Metrodome Team in 2009 and named one of the "50 Greatest Twins" in 2010. Puckett passed away on March 6, 2006.

BERT BLYLEVEN 28

After breaking into the big leagues at the age of 19, Blyleven would go on to pitch 11 of his 22 major league seasons with the Twins (1970-76 and 1985-88). His knee-buckling curveball, competitive drive and his knack for being the clubhouse prankster are only a few reasons why Blyleven had a successful career.

Blyleven was named the 1970 American League Rookie Pitcher of the Year and was selected to the American League All-Star Team in 1973 and 1985. He finished his Twins career with a record of 149-138 and a 3.28 ERA. His 2,035 strikeouts are the most in Twins history, while his 149 wins rank second.

The winner of two World Series Championships (1979 with Pittsburgh and 1987 with Minnesota), Blyleven ranks fifth on Major League Baseball's all-time strikeouts list with 3,701.

His number 28 was formally retired July 16, 2011, becoming the first Twins pitcher to have his number retired. Blyleven was selected to the Twins 40th Season Anniversary All-Time Team in 2000. He was inducted into the Twins Hall of Fame in 2002, was selected to the All-Metrodome Team in 2009 and named one of the "50 Greatest Twins" in 2010. Blyleven was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, NY on July 24, 2011, becoming the first Hall of Famer born in the Netherlands.

TWINS RETIRED NUMBERS

'TK' took over the managerial duties for the Twins on September 12, 1986. In his first full season (1987) as the skipper, he led the Twins to their first World Series Championship. He led the club to their second World Series victory in 1991, which marked the first time in major league history that a team went from last place one season to World Champions the next.

The 1991 American League Manager of the Year had a managerial record of 1140-1244, which places him first on Minnesota's all-time list in wins and games managed. At the time of his retirement after the 2001 season, Kelly was the longest tenured manager/coach in all of major sports. His number 10 was formally retired September 8, 2012, becoming the first Twins manager to receive the honor. Kelly was selected manager on the Twins 40th Season Anniversary All-Time Team in 2000 and was named one of the "50 Greatest Twins" in 2010.

JOE MAUER 7

The hometown St. Paul kid and first overall pick in the 2001 First-Year Player Draft came out of Cretin-Derham Hall High School to play for the team he watched growing up on the other side of the Mississippi River. Mauer played 15 seasons in a Twins uniform from 2004-18, joining Tony Oliva as the only players in club history to reach that particular feat. During that time, the 2009 American League Most Valuable Player was named to six AL All-Star teams, earned five Louisville Slugger Silver Slugger Awards, three Rawlings Gold Glove Awards and became the only American League catcher to ever win a batting title, doing so three different times in 2006, 2008 and 2009.

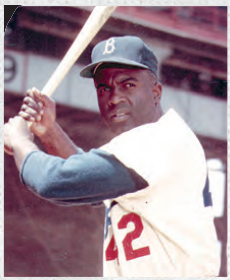

The former catcher turned first baseman ranks first on the Twins all-time list in doubles (428) and times on base (3,087); second in games (1,858), hits (2,123) and walks (939); fifth in RBI (923) and 11th in home runs (143). He was selected to the All-Metrodome team in 2009 and was named one of the "50 Greatest Twins" in 2010. Mauer was a finalist for the Roberto Clemente Award for Outstanding Community service four times in his career, along with countless charitably endeavors from Joe and his family. Mauer's number was formally retired on June 15, 2019.

JIM KAAT 36

'Kitty' made his major league debut for the Washington Senators in 1959 and was a crucial part of the franchise's starting rotation when it relocated to the Twin Cities in 1961. He won 10 or more games for the Twins in every season except for 1961, when he won nine, and is the club's all-time leader in wins (189), games started (422) and innings pitched (2959.1), while ranking second in complete games (133), shutouts (23) and strikeouts (1824).

Known for his athleticism and longevity, Kaat's major league career spanned from 1959-83 and he is one of 29 players in AL/NL history (1876-present) to appear in at least four different decades. He won 16 Gold Glove Awards in his career – all consecutively from 1962-77 – and is tied with Brooks Robinson for second most all-time, behind fellow pitcher Greg Maddux (18). Kaat was selected as the left-handed pitcher on the Twins 25th Anniversary Team in 1986 and 40th Anniversary All-Time Team in 2000, inducted into the Twins Hall of Fame in 2001 and named one of the 50 Greatest Twins in 2010. He was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame by the Golden Days Era Committee in December 2021 and is due to be inducted on July 24, 2022, alongside former teammate and fellow Twins legend Tony Oliva. Kaat's number is scheduled to be formally retired on July 16, 2022.

JACKIE ROBINSON 42

Jackie Robinson broke baseball's color barrier when Branch Rickey brought him up to the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1947. He brought a dynamic style of play to the game and terrorized the base paths. Robinson also proved to be an excellent hitter and a superb defensive infielder. He was voted the National League MVP in 1949 when he hit a league-leading .342 and drove in 124 runs. He batted .311 in his 10-year career and set several fielding records for second basemen.

In conjunction with the 50th anniversary celebration of Robinson breaking baseball's color barrier, Commissioner Bud Selig announced on April 15, 1997 at Shea Stadium that Major League Baseball would retire his uniform number 42 in perpetuity. The Minnesota Twins officially retired his number on May 23, 1997.

MINNESOTA TWINS HALL OF FAME

The Minnesota Twins Hall of Fame, which honors players, coaches and off-field personnel who have contributed to the organization's growth and success since the Twin Cities broke into the major leagues in 1961, was created as part of the club's 40th Season Celebration in 2000.

The inaugural class of Twins Hall of Famers, inducted on August 12, 2000, included Harmon Killebrew, Rod Carew, Tony Oliva, Kent Hrbek, Kirby Puckett and Calvin Griffith. ★ CLASS OF 2005 ★

CARL R. POHLAD
OWNER, 1984-2009

With the franchise facing a possible move out of state, Pohlad purchased the Twins in 1984. He was motivated by a sense of community responsibility and a feeling that major league sports, particularly baseball, are important assets that contribute to the quality of life in the community.

Pohlad enjoyed great success upon taking ownership of the Twins by providing leadership that resulted in two World Series Championships in 1987 and 1991 and back-to-back-to-back American League Central Division Championships from 2002 to 2004.

The on-field success of the franchise was largely due to Pohlad's ability to build and manage an exceptional baseball organization with a strong emphasis on player development. In addition, the Pohlad family has given millions of dollars and countless hours of their time back to the community and region through programs in the Twins Community Fund and the Carl and Eloise Pohlad Family Foundation.

Pohlad passed away on January 5, 2009.

THIRD BASEMAN, 1981-90

Gaetti, a four-time Rawlings Gold Glove third baseman (1986-89), played 10 seasons for the Twins from 1981 to 1990 and was the Opening Day third baseman for nine consecutive years (1982-90). Gaetti helped guide the Twins to their first World Championship in 1987, as he hit 31 homers and drove in a team-high 109 runs.

HUBERT H. HUMPHREY METRODOME

- Opened April 3, 1982, the Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome was home to the Twins for 28 years. It was the third domed facility in baseball and remained the only air-supported structure of its kind until its demolition in January of 2014.
- The Metrodome is the only stadium in the world to play host to the World Series (1987 and 1991), Major League Baseball's All-Star Game (1985), the Super Bowl (XXVI, 1992) and the NCAA Final Four Basketball Tournament (1992 and 2001).
- Construction began on December 20, 1979 and was built by the state of Minnesota at a cost of approximately $68 million.
- Field dimensions were 343' down the leftfield line, 385' to the leftfield power alley, 408' to dead centerfield, 367' to the rightfield power alley and 327' down the line in right. The fence from leftfield to centerfield was 7' high (plexiglass was above the left field wall from 1985-94, which made the wall 13' high) and the "baggie" in right field was 23' high, including 16' of plastic tarp installed in 1983.
- April 14, 1983: Roof deflated due to tear caused by heavy snow.
- May 4, 1984: Oakland's Dave Kingman hit a ball into one of roof's drainage holes in a fourth inning at-bat. The ball never came down and Kingman was awarded a ground rule double.
- April 26, 1986: Roof suffered slight tear due to high winds, causing a nine minute delay in the bottom of the seventh inning vs. California.
- August 29, 1992: A power outage in the third inning caused a 23 minute delay vs. New York.
- August 5, 2001: A power outage in the area of Minneapolis surrounding the Metrodome caused the air conditioning to shut down, heating the inside of the dome during the game to a temperature of 91 degrees as the Twins fell to the Royals 10-5.
- October 2, 2004: The Twins and Indians were forced to suspend their game after the 11th inning due to a curfew rule in effect for an upcoming University of Minnesota football game.
- October 2, 2005: Upon the conclusion of his 50th year of broadcasting baseball, the Twins re-named the baseball pressbox "The Herb Carneal Press Box" in honor of their long-time radio broadcaster. Carneal died on April 1, 2007.
- August 2, 2007: The Twins and Royals postponed their 12:10 p.m. game a day after the Interstate 35W bridge collapse in Minneapolis.
- October 11, 2009: The Twins lost to the Yankees in the ALDS, marking the club's final game in the Metrodome.

The All-Time Team took part in an on-field pre-game ceremony on August 12, 2000 and a poster depicting the All-Time Team was given to the first 10,000 fans in attendance, courtesy of the Star Tribune.

TREASURE ISLAND BASEBALL NETWORK

2022 marks the 16th season that the Minnesota Twins control their radio broadcast rights. More than 80 stations in the five-state area carry Twins games and comprise the Treasure Island Baseball Network. In the Minneapolis-St. Paul market, the Twins can be heard on News Talk 830 WCCO, KMNB 102.9 FM The Wolf and streamed on the Audacy app. In 2022, the geo-fence for that live stream will be expanded to include the entirety of Twins Territory. The live stream is available for no charge through the Audacy app, website and via smart speakers. Prior to the 2020 season, the Twins and Audacy added a FM simulcast of Twins Baseball on the 100,000 watt 102.9 The Wolf. The move back to 'CCO and Audacy in 2018 marked the return to their original broadcast partner, the Twins home for their first 46 years. The Twins were broadcasted on Go 96.3 for five seasons from 2013-17 and ESPN 1500 for six seasons from 2007-12.

The Twins employ an in-house production team that produces the game broadcasts including pre-game and post-game shows that air on network affiliates. In addition, the network team produces the "Hot Stove Show" that airs Wednesday nights throughout the offseason hosted by pre- and postgame host Kris Atteberry. During the season, fans across Twins Territory can listen to "Inside Twins" which airs prior to Sunday pregame shows and features Twins President of Baseball Operations Derek Falvey, General Manager Thad Levine, Twins Manager Rocco Baldelli and other front office staff. This show runs all season and gives fans access into the inner workings of Twins baseball as well as a glimpse through the eyes of the Manager.

In 2007 the Twins, in partnership with the Minnesota News Network, assumed control and development of the Twins Radio Network with Treasure Island Resort & Casino, becoming the first-ever naming rights partner for the network in 2010. Historically, the Treasure Island Baseball Network has been one of the largest in all of Major League Baseball with hometown radio partners bringing Twins baseball to fans across five states.

The Twins also broadcast 50 games in Spanish. Alfonso Fernandez begins his 17th season as play-by-play voice, with Hall of Famer Tony Oliva as the analyst. Games in Spanish can be heard via a stream on twinsbeisbol.com simply by signing in with a free MLB account and is also carried on the SAP channel during Bally Sports North's broadcasts.

John Gordon Award — Twins Radio Affiliate of the Year

Named after legendary Twins broadcaster, John Gordon, this honor is awarded annually to the Twins radio affiliate that demonstrates the best of Twins Territory in its commitment to the Minnesota Twins and its community.

TONY OLIVA

SPANISH RADIO, ANALYST

Pedro 'Tony' Oliva Jr., or 'Tony-O' to those who followed his 24-year career as a Twins player and coach, was a man who seemed to excel in all aspects of the game. He could hit for power and average, run, field and throw, and his versatility made him one of the most feared hitters of his day. He was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in December 2021 and is set to be inducted on July 24, 2022.

Tony-O collected 1,917 hits and retired with a .304 career average. He is the only player to win batting titles in his first two seasons and was the winner of three in his 15-year career. His prowess as a hitter was demonstrated in the fact that he led the league in hits five times, and his 220 career home runs rank fourth all-time among Twins.

Oliva, the 1964 American League Rookie of the Year, began his coaching career in 1976. He also works as a hitting instructor in the Twins minor league system and scouts for the club. He had his number 6 retired July 14, 1991 and was selected to the Twins 25th Anniversary Team in 1986 and the 40th Season Anniversary All-Time Team in 2000. He was inducted into the Twins Hall of Fame on August 12, 2000, and was named one of the "50 Greatest Twins" in 2010. MINNESOTA TWINS MEDIA POLICIES

This is an abbreviated version of the Twins' media policies for the 2022 regular season; for the club's full policies, please visit the Twins' club content page on the MLB Credentials Portal, credentials.mlb.com, or contact the Twins directly.

No other credential requests will be accepted, via email or otherwise. The application deadline for each day will be 5:00 p.m. CT the day before. If media members are approved for a daily credential and cannot attend, please notify the Twins Communications staff as soon as possible. By submitting a request and receiving a media credential for access to Target Field, a media member will be required to observe all MLB and Twins rules. Credentials are not transferable and are subject to terms and conditions. The Twins reserve the right to designate access to media, regardless of vaccination status. Clubhouse access will be granted on a limited basis during the 2022 season and media must show proof of up-to-date vaccination status, including booster shots, in order to receive clubhouse access. Media must also wear masks covering their nose and mouth while inside the clubhouse.

Most interviews may be conducted on the field during batting practice where the manager, players and coaches are usually available, as long as the interview does not interrupt their pre-game routine. Members of the media must stay in foul territory between first and third base. In-depth interviews that require more time with a player should be pre-arranged through the Twins Communications department. Reporters and broadcasters must leave the field, with photographers reporting to their assigned photo positions, no later than one-half hour before game time.

CLUBHOUSE ACCESS

Clubhouse access will be limited to members of the Baseball Writers' Association of America (BBWAA) and to coverage reporters of area daily newspapers, radio and TV stations. Media must show proof of up-to-date vaccination status, including booster shots, in order to receive clubhouse access. Media must also wear masks covering their nose and mouth while inside the clubhouse. The Twins clubhouse will be open to media with clubhouse credentials until one hour prior to each game and then reopen no longer than 10 minutes following each game. Still photographers are not allowed in the clubhouse at any time. On the occasion of a team meeting, the clubhouse will be closed until the conclusion of the meeting. Clubhouse access is limited to the player-locker area and the manager's office. The training room, dining room and weight room are off-limits to everyone except the manager, coaches, players and Twins officials. The dugout is off limits during the game for everyone except the manager, coaches, players, trainers and certain Club officials.

GAMEDAY INFORMATION

Printed materials (game notes, rosters, lineup sheets, statpacks, etc.) will be available in both the Twins Communications Office and pressbox on gamedays. These materials will also be electronically disseminated to media when available and can be found on twinspressbox.com.

PHOTOGRAPHERS AND VIDEOGRAPHERS

Still photographers will be required to show proof of up-to-date vaccination status, including boosters, to access the photo wells and photo workroom. Proof of vaccination can be shown upon arrival at Target Field or be emailed to Nina Zimmerman ahead of time. All vaccine card information sent via email will be kept strictly confidential. Please note that the Twins reserve the right to designate access, regardless of vaccination status. Due to a lack of on-field photo spots, the first and third base photo wells are limited to local newspapers, wire services, Twins photographers and whomever is assigned for that particular game. As an alternative, the Twins provide designated photo positions around the concourse. Photographers assigned to the on-field locations should remain in the photo wells at all times during the game. Photographers in the photo wells should leave or change locations between innings only. Photos are allowed during batting practice, but photographers must remain on the dirt in foul territory, between first and third base. No photographs are to be taken from the baseball pressbox.

LEE COUNTY SPORTS COMPLEX

The Twins will spend their 32nd spring training season in Lee County at the Lee County Sports Complex in 2022. Spurred by their first year in the state-of-the-art facility, the Twins won the 1991 World Series after enjoying their most successful Spring Training camp in history as they posted a record-high 21 wins. In the 31 years, the Twins have drawn at total of 3,187,895 fans over 466 dates, (total does not include 17 replacement games in 1995 – 49,240 fans).

Located south of the city of Fort Myers near Interstate 75, the Lee County Sports Complex is the spring training home to the Twins and their six minor league affiliates. The centerpiece of the facility is an 8,730-seat stadium in which the major league Twins play their exhibition games and conduct some of their daily workouts. The complex also features five full practice fields and two half-fields.

On August 3, 2004, the Twins signed an extension with Lee County for use of the complex through 2020, and on November 6, 2012 the Lee County Board of County Commissioners approved a $42.5 million renovation and a new 30-year lease. Also in 2012, the Twins named their infield drills field "Tom Kelly Field" in honor of their former manager. Combined with the Twins contribution, the total for the renovations increased to $48.5 million. The renovations prior to the 2015 season increased the seating capacity to 8,730 and include a new party deck, expanded gift shop and an outfield boardwalk around the playing field to create a 360-degree walk-around the stadium, similar to Target Field. The plan also renovated previously existing concession stands, restrooms, suites and press box areas. The project was designed by Populous out of Kansas City, MO, with designed assistance by Parker Mudgett Smith, based out of Fort Myers, FL, and was constructed by Manhattan Construction.

A signature feature of the renovated facilities is the Twins Player

Development Academy which includes a 58-room residence hall for players and staff, dining facilities, recreational spaces, meeting rooms, educational classrooms and Champions Hall, a 220-seat tiered theater used by players and staff for meetings, conferences and presentations throughout the year. The Academy contains state of the art technology, Wi-Fi throughout and high-tech video systems for player instruction for both major league and minor league players.

In addition to the Player Development Academy, the entire minor league building was renovated including expanded clubhouse with new lockers for players and staff, new 1,800 square foot training room, high tech video facilities, expanded office space and a new game field for the minor league teams.

The major league facility, team and player upgrades include new athletic training and strength and conditioning rooms, new lockers for players and staff, dedicated dining room space, state-of-the-art video facilities and complete renovation of all office and meeting rooms. The overall project earned the Twins the Ballpark Digest's Best Major Renovations of 2015.

Continuing the renovations at Hammond Stadium prior to the 2016 season, Lee County and the Twins added a shade structure along the leftfield line of the Boardwalk and a permanent serving area on the 4th floor Sky Deck.

Installed prior to 2017, the old scoreboard was replaced with a new full-feature LED video board. The screen measures 18' x 35' and was installed by Daktronics of Brookings, SD. Additionally, the GCL Twins home playing field was named "Bill Smith Field" in honor of the former Twins General Manager and in 2018 a practice field adjacent to the main stadium was named "Stelly Field" in honor of longtime Twins coach Rick Stelmaszek, who passed away the previous year.

The LCSC is home to two Twins minor league affiliates, housing both the Fort Myers Mighty Mussels of the Low-A Southeast League, West Division and the Rookie Level Florida Complex League Twins.

The main stadium was renamed Bill Hammond Stadium late in the 1994 spring season in honor of the longtime Deputy County Manager who was instrumental in getting the complex approved and bringing the Twins to Lee County.

Major league home and visiting clubhouses are included in the stadium proper, and complete facilities for the minor league teams are contained in a building adjacent to their playing fields. Prior to the start of the 2005 spring training, a 6,000 square foot state-of-the-art fitness training room and conference center was built next to the minor league facility.

The major league club's administrative offices are located in the stadium, with the minor league administrative offices in the building adjacent to its fields.

The facility also features a four-field softball complex and other athletic facilities for use by Lee County organizations and visiting amateur baseball and softball teams, plus an 11-acre water-management lake.

The Twins trained in Orlando, FL, from 1936 through 1990 (with the exception of the war years of 1943, '44 and '45, when they conditioned in College Park, MD) and their minor league clubs moved to Terry Park in Fort Myers in 1990, after headquartering in Melbourne, FL, from 1964-89. The entire organization was united for the first time in Lee County in 1991.

The Sports Complex, an $18.2 million undertaking, was completed in February, 1991. Lescher and Mahoney, an architectural and engineering firm based in Tampa, FL, was the lead architect for the project, with design assistance from Ellerbe Becket of Kansas City, Missouri. Case Contracting Company of Plant City, FL, was the contractor.
